

The WALT DISNEY Company Europe, Middle East & Africa

Christine Service

Country Manager,

The Walt Disney Company Africa

As Country Manager for The Walt Disney Company Africa, Christine has direct responsibility for all lines of business in these dynamic markets, including South Africa.

Christine has a 19-year career at Disney and has been based in Johannesburg for the last 12 years.

Prior to her current role, Christine was Vice President of Ventures and Business Development within the then Walt Disney International Television group based in London. In this role she was responsible for managing Disney's television investments across Europe Middle East and Africa as well as expanding Disney's channel portfolio across the region.

Prior to joining Disney, Christine spent 6 years working for the international management consulting firm, McKinsey & Company.

She holds a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from the University of Waterloo in Canada as well as an MPhil from Cambridge University, UK.